

Bilinguist nationwide Language Competition (BLS) 2025 Aim, Terms and Conditions

"The BLS Contest English Olympiad is your opportunity to shine."

Aim

Bilinguist Language School is organizing a nationwide English Language competition. It offers students the opportunity to connect with their peers from other schools and obtain official certificates. The competition will take place at our school in Podgorica.

The top ten students will study English with discounts of up to 100%.

The desire to compete is the basis of human psychology, encouraging development and boosting motivation. The BLS educational competition allows all participants to prove themselves, train their concentration, and show their level of knowledge

The main goal of the BLS English language competition is to increase pupils' interest and motivation in the subject. The competition includes tasks of different difficulty levels, allowing all pupils to demonstrate their knowledge and skills regardless of their level of preparation.

The main objectives of BLS English competitions:

1. To help participants express themselves.
2. To increase students' motivation and interest in English.
3. To repeat various material in English language.
